

My experience is other municipalities do not have the close interaction with board members as Omaha has with the contactors as well with the community.