

We do not know how other states regulate plumbers, and most of the other municipalities in our area require proof of insurance and proof that the plumber has passed the test through ICC or UPC, depending on the community. Most of the communities also provide reciprocity, so as long as a plumber is licensed in one community, they are able to do work in almost any community.