KELLY: Good morning, ladies and gentlemen. Welcome to the George W. Norris Legislative Chamber for the first day of the First Special Session, One Hundred Eighth Legislature. Our chaplain for today is Senator Dorn. Please rise.

DORN: Please, please join me in a word of prayer. Dear Lord, in the Book of James, you tell us that you will freely and generously give wisdom to anyone who ask. We come before you this morning needing your wisdom and discernment to do what is best for the people we represent and for our great state of Nebraska. We know there will be different views on the issues before us in this special session, so we ask you to help us to be quick to listen to each other, slow to respond, and even slower to get angry. May our actions and our interactions be pleasing to you. May the work we do in this special session be for the good of your people and for the people of the state of Nebraska and for your glory. In Jesus' name. Amen.

KELLY: I recognized Senator Hughes for the Pledge of Allegiance.

HUGHES: Colleagues, please join me. I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

KELLY: Thank you. I call to order the first day of the One Hundred Eighth Legislature, First Special Session. Senators, please record your presence. Roll call. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: There's a quorum present, Mr. President.
