That is all Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Are there any motions on the desk?

CLERK: None, Mr. President. I do have this one announcement. The postmistress picks up mail downstairs at 8:30 and 10:00, 1:00 and 2:30 in case any of you want to note those times for anticipation of mail. 8:30 and 10:00, 1:00 and 2:30 P.M.

SPEAKER: Is there any other business on the desk?

CLERK: Mr. President, a notice of a committee hearing. Read.

SPEAKER: Mr. Speaker, Senator Proud. Mr. Speaker, do you know of any other business: Do you have any announcements.

SENATOR PROUD: None whatsoever, Mr. President.

SPEAKER: We're fresh out of business.

SENATOR PROUD: Well, then I move we adjourn until 10:00 A.M. tomorrow morning unless there is some reason that we should remain in session today.

SPEAKER: Thank you. Let's take a look. Does anybody have any bills that they want to have introduced and read by title? Any announcements. None.

SENATOR PROUD: Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Mr. Speaker.

SENATOR PROUD: Will we have any business tomorrow other than the possible introduction of new bills? I am going to--I am going to renew the motion to adjourn till 10:00 A.M. tomorrow morning and if anybody desires to amend it, you can feel free to do so. There may be some here that feel that we should not meet tomorrow but
