SPEAKER: The chair has a couple of points of personal privilege this morning and in keeping with the proposed rule change, it is my privilege this morning to introduce sitting in the south balcony 28 students from the fourth grade of Waverly Schools. Their teachers accompanying them are Marge Seymour and Rose Sharry. We are very pleased to have you visiting your Nebraska Unicameral Legislature this morning and in addition, the chair has the privilege of introducing from Boys Town High School, Boys Town, Nebraska with their teacher, Miss Klinauser, 30 students and they are, of course, from Senator Fellman's district. They are seated in the north balcony. On behalf of the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature, I want to welcome you to Nebraska's capitol city and also to the capitol building which is, of course, one of the ten architectural achievements of the world. Very good. Senator Fred Carstens, We have your motion up here relative to the withdrawal of a bill. Did you wish to be heard on that particular request? The chair recognizes Senator Carstens.

SENATOR CARSTENS: Mr. President, members, I am withdrawing this bill, I believe it is #21, which was a bill to make the sale of school lands discretionary and I want to explain why I did it. There is another bill which Senator Richard Lewis introduced which covers exactly the same subject matter and his bill has a few added things that I support and in order to avert and avoid the necessity of having two separate hearings
