SPEAKER: Any other business on the desk. Did Senator Mahoney have an announcement?

CLERK: Mr. President. Oh, excuse me.

SPEAKER: Read the announcement.

CLERK: O yes, notice of committee hearings, Mr. President. Read.

SPEAKER: Are there any other--excuse me. Senator Kelly.

SENATOR KELLY: A point of personal privilege.

SPEAKER: State your point, Senator.

SENATOR KELLY: After diligent research of the Nebraska Statutes, I have some very important statistics to report to this body. The word "he" shows in Nebraska Statutes 4,888 times. The word "she" shows in the Nebraska Statutes 111 times. Thank you.

SPEAKER: Thank you.

CLERK: Read.

SPEAKER: A motion to adjourn till 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. All those in---. Motion is to adjourn until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Senator Syas. Excuse me, let's try Senator Hasebroock.

SENATOR HASEBROOCK: I move that we amend the motion to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

SPEAKER: Motion to amend the adjournment time until 10 o'clock tomorrow. All those in favor of that motion say aye, those opposed say no. Alright, the ayes have it. So ordered. We will adjourn---Alright, the motion is shall we adjourn until 10 o'clock tomorrow. Just a minute, please. Senator Stromer.

SENATOR STROMER: I move--I would move to amend that to Monday morning.

SPEAKER: We now have before us a motion to amend the time of adjournment till Monday morning. Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, we've got things on General File that we could take up tomorrow. We've got Committee Hearings tomorrow afternoon. I don't know why we can't work in the morning. I'd oppose that motion to adjourn until Monday.

SPEAKER: Well, let's put it to a vote. The question is shall we adjourn until 9:00, excuse me, 10:00 was it Senator Stromer. Did you specify a time. 9:00 or 10:00.

SENATOR STROMER: My amendment only dealt with the day so it was the time that we did change.

SPEAKER: Motion is shall we adjourn then until Monday. All those in favor of that motion vote aye, those opposed vote no. Motion is to adjourn
