SENATOR CARPENTER: Indicate that all the bill requested was in the limitation of time that was given to every Senator. I would think that they ought to realize when we adjourn today that's the end of the introduction of bills under the normal process. Now in order to supplement that, and I call this to the attention of the press, if there are any of them around here now, that this body has made a great deal of progress, contrary to what many people say. The reason that I say that in 1971, which was the last 90 day session, a thousand two bills were introduced, today which is another 90 day session less than 500 have been introduced. We've cut the bills in number over half, and I think that is part a direct reflection of the limitation of bills that the rules committee suggested and the body authorized and I don't think we ever should change it.

SPEAKER: Are there any other motions on the desk? We have some new bills for introduction, as soon as we get them processed the Clerk will read the titles. Senator Warner did you wish to be recognized?

SENATOR WARNER: Yeah, a question of Senator Carpenter.

SPEAKER: Senator Carpenter will you yield to a question from Senator Warner?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Yes.

SENATOR WARNER: Senator Carpenter did I understand that the bill drafter's have said that all bills have been delivered?

SENATOR CARPENTER: That's what he told me about thirty minutes ago.

SENATOR WARNER: I have one which isn't, I just sent a page back to make sure it'll be here by 12:00.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I asked him specifically about yours, he said he had given you one, I didn't know how many you had.

SENATOR WARNER: I have one more.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Why don't you send somebody down to get your bill, and hold it here.

SENATOR WARNER: I just did, but I'd like to get it in by 12:00.
