

SENATOR CARPENTER: I think, I think this body is overlooking the realistic part of what this discussion is. Now the Budget Committee will know nothing about this problem, except that brought to it as a recommendation by the Governor of this State. In previous times as they ought to know, the administrators have been very reluctant in order to do what we thought they should do. The Judiciary Committee is a standing committee and operates the year around. We have been assigned the responsibilities of the functions which this bill covers. The Chairman of this committee has spent not only hours but days, weeks, months and years to study this problem. If we don't know, there is nobody in this State government who knows, no one. If you don't want to take our recommendation, you ought to disband this. We spent hours and hours and hours discussing this problem. We've held meeting after a meeting. Now, if we're going to have to be put in a position of what Mr. Kruger --
