employee from the Department of Public Institutions shall have the right to appeal to the head of the Department of Public Institutions". This is not..this does not agree with the other agencies of state government where they have the right to appeal to the Personnel Board and this bill simply repeals that Section so that they have the same right as other state employees and they can appeal their decisions or problems to the Personnel Board. I might point out that on the committee statement that nobody from the Department of Institutions opposed the bill and a Mr. John Russell from the State Department of Personnel was also present. I would move for the advancement of this bill to E & R Initial.

SPEAKER: Is there any further discussion of LB 100? The question is shall LB 100 be advanced from General File to E & R Initial. All those in favor vote aye. All those opposed vote no. A malfunction.
