(Start Belt #1)

CLERK: Quorum present Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Thank you. Are there corrections for the journal?

CLERK: Corrections read. That's all Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Are there corrections from the floor? There are no further corrections the journal will stand as corrected. Any petitions, memorials, notices of committee hearings?

CLERK: Communications (read). That will be inserted in the journal Mr. President.

SPEAKER: Thank you. Any notices of committee hearings or reports?

CLERK: Read.

SPEAKER: While the legislation is in session and capable of transacting business, I am signing LB 19, LB 35, LB 95, LB 117, LB 119, LB 120, LB 124, LB 137, LB 38, LB 84, LB 152 and in conclusion, LB 198.

CLERK: Committee Enrollment Reports (read).

SPEAKER: The Chair recognizes Senator Keyes. For what purpose do you rise Senator?

SENATOR KEYES: Mr. President, a question of the Lt. Governor, do you yield?

SPEAKER: Yes sir.

SENATOR KEYES: Just a few moments ago, there was something put in the journal, until the name of the man that was put into the journal was read, I had no doubts about it. Now what was this, explain to me and by what authority does this gentlemen get his article in the journal?

SPEAKER: The communication we had from the President.

SENATOR KEYES: Yes. What president?

SPEAKER: It was my understanding that it came from the President of the United States, but it could have been from the Department of Agriculture, would the Clerk read the title of the man -

CLERK: The communication was a communication from the Department of Agriculture, written on behalf of the President, it was a position statement by the Department of Agriculture, the Speaker of the legislature directed that it be read before the body and inserted in the journal.

SENATORY KEYES: Thank you I didn't hear the first part, but I did hear the last name and I didn't recognize the name and wondering what authority that man had to put something in the journal.

SPEAKER: Does that answer your question Senator Keyes? Senator Kremer, just a second Senator Proud. Senator Kremer.

SENATOR KREMER: Mr. Chairman I would like to speak on a point of personal privilege.

SPEAKER: State your point Senator.
