

February 23, 1973

see I have deep roots in the rural life of our great state of Nebraska, and I have always been proud of Nebraska, and I was most happy to represent our state at the American Mothers Meeting in New York City, last May. This experience has made me real appreciative, more so then ever before of the wonderful work of the American Mothers Committee. Such projects as a Chapel in every home, and their work with the young mothers in the Nation, and all of their other worthwhile projects, certainly merits the support of all

(End of Belt #3)