your asking to bracket LB 206.

SENATOR KENNEDY: Oh yes, I'd like to have 206 bracketed indefinitely, it's set on final reading for tomorrow, until I'm able to consult with a number of people, I've just handed a notice a few minutes ago, and I'd like to have 206 bracketed indefinitely.

SPEAKER: Are there objections to bracketing 206 indefinitely on final reading, any objections, Senator Kennedy's request. Any objections? Hearing none, so ordered, we will bracket 206 on final reading.

CLERK: Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to be excused tomorrow morning, until I arrive, signed Senator Stull.

SPEAKER: Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President notice of Rules Committee Hearing (read). I now have a motion to adjourn Mr. President.

SPEAKER: We have a motion to adjourn, is there any other business to come before the body? Before we take up the motion to adjourn, the Chair would like to call to the attention of the body, that we have a group of women from the League of Women Voters of Nebraska, and they are headed this morning by Alice Timm, who is the Legislative Day Chairman, and Cathy Webber of course who is the State Legislative Chairman, and I think that we ought to ask them to stand up, because I think the Legislature would like to recognize you- for your efforts and for you interest in the State of Nebraska, would the ladies from the League of Women Voters please rise, so we can recognize you. I know that I speak on behalf of the entire body when I say welcome to the Chambers today and we are delighted to have you here as observers and we hope that you enjoy your visit to the unique Unicameral Legislature of Nebraska and additionally to the State Capitol of Nebraska, which still ranks as, of course, one of the ten architectural achievements of the world. Now then, do we have another motion on the desk?

CLERK: Mr. President I move that we adjourn, signed Senator Rasmussen.

SPEAKER: We have a motion to adjourn, the question is shall we adjourn, the motion of course shall be until 9:00 tomorrow morning, all those in favor of the motion to adjourn, say aye, those opposed say no, so ordered we are adjourned until 9:00 tomorrow morning.
