Miss Dorothy Bangert and Mr. Jerry Shedlosky are the instructors. Additionally in the north balcony this morning we have 16 fifth grade students from the Filley Consolidated Schools of Filley, Nebraska. Miss Ruth Rhoads is their instructor and then also we have 37 seventh grade students from Henderson Community School and I think I saw Senator Epke get up there to visit with them during the reading of the budget bill and Mr. Larry Jones and Mr. Ron Pauls are their instructors. We're delighted to have all of you here today as visitors to the Nebraska Unicameral Legislature. You have witnessed a very historic vote and we hope you enjoy your visit to the capitol building and to Lincoln's Capitol City. We next have some business on the desk which does have to be put into the Journal. Senator Dickinson, for what reason did you want to be recognized? Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, a little point of vanity I guess but I have some constituents and some teachers and some kids, some students from Millard Elementary Schools and I don't, I believe you neglected to introduce them, Mr. President, did you?

PRESIDENT: From where?

SENATOR DICKINSON: Bryan Elementary School of Millard. They are just leaving and I wanted to recognize them before they did.

PRESIDENT: Well, apparently the sheet did not get up to me and I'm, I apologize to the group from Bryan and we want to welcome them too and we're sorry that somehow or another we missed communications here. We're delighted to have you here today visiting and it's a good thing that Senator Dickinson is on the ball back there. Thank you. Enjoy your stay here in Lincoln's Capitol City, Nebraska's capitol city. We still are on Final Reading. The chair would remind you and we have some other business I understand that the Clerk would like to get into the record. Do you have some things there that you would like to clear?

CLERK: Yes. Reads reports.

PRESIDENT: While the Legislature is in session and capable of transacting business, I am signing LB 268.

CLERK: Reads reports.

PRESIDENT: We have a special presentation to handle this morning and we are delighted that we are able to put this into the schedule of events. The chair would like to appoint Senator Marsh and Senator Luedtke to retire to the back of the room to help escort in some very special guests. I believe Senator Clark is already back there. Senator Luedtke, would you retire to the back of the room? Will the Sergeant-at-arms let me know when you are ready. Sergeant-at-arms, when he's ready back there, Robbie, will you have him step to Cavanaugh's microphone and then make the announcement there. Sergeant-at-arms, when you're ready with your group and so forth, will you let me know and you can announce them from Senator Cavanaugh's microphone.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Sergeant-at-arms.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS: The special occasion today is the Mother of the Year, being escorted by the committee you have requested.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Mrs. Bertha Hill, the committee chairman will be escorted by Senator Luedtke. Mother of the Year will be escorted, I believe, by Senator Marsh and the young
