

May 3, 1973

SPEAKER: Is there anybody else that wants to be excused?
Mr. Clerk, how many have asked to be excused?

CLERK: 18

SPEAKER: 18? Well, of course, we would have a majority but a bare majority. Senator Carstens. Carsten.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Now Mr. Chairman and Members of the Legislature. I have no way of knowing whether these excused a--requests for excused absence are legitimate or not and it's not for me to know but I think we have played around here quite a while and I think it's time we settled down to business. I'm a farmer and I'm anxious to get home and go to work, the same as every individual that's here. He has his own business to take care of

(End of Belt #2)