SENATOR MARVEL: Yes.

SENATOR SYAS: Well, then, why can't we take it up ahead of Wednesday.

SENATOR MARVEL: Excuse me, I have one other comment, if I might. I am not sure Senator Carpenter's motion included 505. If it doesn't give the bill, it ought to be brought in the picture.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I ask unanimous consent to add it.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter asking unanimous consent to add 505. Are there objections to adding 505? Do you object Senator Syas? Senator Goodrich, do you object to adding 505 to this list? I thank you. Any objections, hearing none... Senator Warner, are you objecting to 505? Senator Warner. In order to ask a question, I temporarily object.

PRESIDENT: Well, let me...I am trying...may I come back to you, please. Let's dispatch that one. Do you object to 505?

SENATOR WARNER: Not in itself, no.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. All right. Then 505 is added to the list which is in this motion. Now, back to you, Senator Syas.

SENATOR SYAS: Senator Marvel, what date could you debate this bill.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marvel, do you care to respond?

SENATOR SYAS: These bills.

SENATOR MARVEL: Well, I think you have this problem. We can debate it anytime you are ready.

SENATOR SYAS: Well, I am ready right now.

SENATOR MARVEL: OK.

SENATOR SYAS: Well, I would like to have us take the noon hour off but...

SENATOR MARVEL: Well, not sure...I am not sure, to back up what Senator Carpenter said that you have...that they are printed and that you've seen them. You know, we get in to this discussion whether we are going to debate appropriation bills and I think on view of the discussion we had on previous bills you ought to have time enough to look at them.

SENATOR SYAS: Well, when do you think that would be?

SENATOR MARVEL: Well, let me rationalize to this point. Tomorrow is Friday. I assume this creates some problem.

SENATOR SYAS: Yes.

SENATOR MARVEL: Monday might create a problem. I'd say by Tuesday or Wednesday.

SENATOR SYAS: Well.

SENATOR MARVEL: Are we off Tuesday?

SENATOR SYAS: Yes.

SENATOR MARVEL: All day Tuesday?
