(Start of Belt #1)

PRESIDENT: Will the legislature please come to order. We will have prayer again by Reverend Everett E. Hezmall, Associate Pastor of Westminister Presbyterian Church.

PRAYER: Read.

PRESIDENT: Roll call.

CLERK: Senator Burbach, asked to be excused.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered. Please indicate your presence. Once again, have you all indicated your presence? Clerk will record.

CLERK: Quorum present, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank-you. Are there corrections for the Journal? Are there corrections from the floor. If not, the Journal will stand as correct. Senator Frank Lewis, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR LEWIS: Point of personal privilege Mr. Chairman.

PRESIDENT: State your point Senator.

SENATOR LEWIS: I had placed on your desk yesterday afternoon, some information on capitol construction. I was questioned this morning as to what the purpose was. There is no hidden purpose. It was simply some information that I was interested in as to where we had involved ourselves in projects in the last several years and since I had procured that for myself, since they had done the research, I'd though I would make it available for you. I had no alterior motive to doing it other than for your own benefit and own information.

PRESIDENT: Senator Waldron, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR WALDRON: Mr. President, members of the legislature, I'd like to announce that the meeting that was going to be held in the east lounge on fuel crisis and LB 587, will now be in the east senate chamber because of the increased interest in the, there will be more room in there. It will be in the east chamber.

PRESIDENT: Other notices of committee hearings and reports.

CLERK: A message on the desk.

PRESIDENT: Read the message.

CLERK: Date of May 16, 1973 received by my office on May 16, (Read)

PRESIDENT: We have considerable task ahead of us this morning. Before we launch into that, the chair would like to announce 18 students from Trinity Lutheran School, at Madison Nebraska. Senator Kennedy's district. Their instructors are Mr. Clemont Seemy and Bill, Mr. Bill Greentow. I tried. It is the hand writing that throws me every time. We're delighted to have you here. Hope you enjoy your visit to the capitol, and to the Unicameral legislature. Soon as we can clear the floor and get the Senators in their seats, we will begin final reading with LB 45. Senator Carpenter, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CARPENTER: Sort of a point of order.

PRESIDENT: Go ahead sir.

SENATOR CARPENTER: The first bill is 108 pages long. Others
