PRESIDENT: The bill is passed. Gentlemen, I realize that we want to allow some latitude because of the length of this particular session and the final reading chores here, but the chair is going to have to request that you be very careful about the floor, with the exception this morning, I think of Senator Snyder, and I think you would give me unanimous approval there, in his particular instance because he has his young son with him, but I'm going to have to ask that other people that are not related with the activities of the legislature, put it directly, not be on the floor. I don't mind your movement around here, but if you have someone you want to visit with, that is officially connected with the legislature, let's step off in the wings and generally let me know if you are going to step out of the chamber so at least we can keep track of who is where. I'd appreciate your cooperation really very much. Attention please, the final reading of LB 423.
