PRESIDENT: Ready for the consideration of bills on General File. Excuse me, Chair recognizes Senator Proud.

SENATOR PROUD: Mr. President I had some inquiries as to whether or not we were going to meet this afternoon. There is only one public committee hearing scheduled this week. However there are several executive hearings, or meetings and it appears to me that we will not have enough to keep us occupied this afternoon and because of these committee meetings I am suggesting that we not meet this afternoon but if anyone objects, please let me know. I'm mentioning this now because some have wanted to know whether we were going to meet. The Appropriations committee would like to meet this afternoon, plus several other committees. It would
