

wants to take such an interest in this bill.

PRESIDENT: Are there any objections then to laying the bill over and having the amendments be printed in the Journal? Hearing none we will by pass then 396. I believe that the motion offered carried with it to bracket it for a couple of days here.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Until Thursday.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. 396 bracketed until Thursday then. We will move to the consideration of LR8 which was bracketed for today. (see resolution book)

PRESIDENT: What do we have on the desk that we have to handle?

CLERK: Read notices regarding hearings. New bills LB722, LB723, LB724, LB725, LB726, LB727, LB728. Mr. President, I move that we be adjourned until 8:00 tomorrow morning, sined, Senator Rasmussen.

PRESIDENT: Chair recognizes Senator Rasmussen for his motion. All right, Senator Proud, Speaker Proud.

SPEAKER PROUD: Did he say 8:00?

PRESIDENT: He said 8:00.

SPEAKER: I don't believe that we have enough to do to go till noon on that, I'll just amend that to 9:30.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carpenter.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Is that motion pending now to adjourn until tomorrow morning. It seems to me that we have a number of bills here for reference which would help in having them printed. I would hope that we withhold the motion until after the ceremony and after the bills are introduced. If they are and set for the various committees for hearings then do the same thing, it would only take a few minutes.

PRESIDENT: Are you suggesting Senator Carpenter that we just hold off on the motion to adjourn until after the ceremony.

SENATOR CARPENTER: Yes, why don't we just recess until,

PRESIDENT: That is fine with the Chair. Senator Rasmussen is that alright with you? Thank you. Speaker Proud is that OK with you? Thank you. Alright then the Chair is going to appoint a committee of four to (blank) and relatives of John Neihardt and also the Neihardt Foundation Officials, may I have your attention please? The committee...the Neihardt officials are out in the rotunda and I don't know where, I presume the Governor is in his chambers so I would like to appoint Senator C. Carsten, Senator Richendifer, Senator Hasebrook, and Senator Marsh to please retire to the rotunda and
