

SENATOR KELLY: Mr. President, a question of Senator Luedtke. In the example by Senator Mahoney, you stated that anybody that is named in the will could go ahead and informally probate.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Not anyone I said that the one that was named executor. The priority of this bill.

SENATOR KELLY: Well I mean well down the priorities.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Well yeah, it goes down a list of priorities that is right.

SENATOR KELLY: Now tell me what happens when that same conditions exist without a will.

SENATOR LUEDTKE: Then there is a provision providing that the surviving spouse, the surviving children and it goes right down the line in an order of priorities the same way. Not just anyone, this is some of the
