

March 20, 1974

SENATOR MAHONEY: Plenty of time.

SENATOR SYAS: Well, I'm asking somebody. Oh, I think you can. I've had my own opinion on it but I can set it earlier, you know, by suspending the rules.

PRESIDENT: Well, Senator Syas, I think you're asking the Chair or the Clerk to speculate on something we can't predict.

SENATOR SYAS: Well, you can speculate a little bit.

PRESIDENT: What the Body is going to do.

SENATOR SYAS: All right, I'll set it for next Wednesday. That's not our regular constitutional day but since there's no committee hearings, I'll set it for next Wednesday at 12:30. Quarter till one, let's say quarter till one, that'll be better, that'll give everybody a chance to eat and still have the hearing and that'll comply with the five days will it not?

PRESIDENT: Yes, sir.

CLERK: Reference Committee report, Mr. President. Refers LR128 to Constitutional Revision. Notice of committee hearing, Constitutional Revision gives notice of setting LR128 for 12:45 on Wednesday, or what?

SENATOR SYAS: Wednesday, next Wednesday, a week from today.

CLERK: We had a minor omission on here.

SENATOR SYAS: Try to stop me on that one, Senator Simpson.

CLERK: March 27, signed, Senator Syas.

PRESIDENT: All right.

CLERK: Mr. President, I ask to be excused at 9:40 to meet with Mr. Kelly...Kelly Smith of the Federal Trade Commission.

PRESIDENT: Are there.....

(End of Belt #5)

(Begin Belt #6)

CLERK: Signed, Senator Schmit.

PRESIDENT: Are there objections? Hearing none, so ordered. Do we have any other motions on the desk?

CLERK: None, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. We're ready for the....are there any bills for introduction?

CLERK: None.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Consideration of bills on Select File. Senator Cavanaugh. We're ready for those bills on Select File here. Information I have, it's LB826A, 1028 and then we have moved LB1024 back for specific amendment, from Final Reading.
