

(Start Belt 4)

April 11, 1974

PRESIDENT: Clerk will record.

CLERK: Read record vote.

PRESIDENT: Whitney. Senator Whitney.

SENATOR WHITNEY: Point of order.

PRESIDENT: Just a minute. Senator Whitney.

SENATOR WHITNEY: I don't have this bill in my book. Do others have the bill in their book?

PRESIDENT: Did you look, Senator Whitney, did you look ahead of....

SENATOR WHITNEY: I've looked forward and backward and I can't find it.

PRESIDENT: All right.

SENATOR WHITNEY: I wish to have it on my desk before I vote.

PRESIDENT: Must be an oversight, Senator Whitney. Mine is up here. I'll be glad to loan you mine if you want it. Senator Frank Lewis is voting no.

CLERK: Frank Lewis voting no.

PRESIDENT: Senator Kelly is voting no.

CLERK: Senator Kelly voting no. Changing from aye to no?

PRESIDENT: Aye to no. Senator.....

CLERK: Dickinson changing from aye to no?

PRESIDENT: Right.

CLERK: Maresh aye to no.

PRESIDENT: Senator Maresh changing from aye to no. Now wait a minute, okay, Senator Savage voting aye. Senator Savage is voting aye. All right, Senator Lewis is voting aye. Senator Lewis changing from no to aye. All right. Do we have that?

CLERK: Senator Frank Lewis changing from no to aye.

PRESIDENT: All right now, wait a minute. Senator Whitney, what's your problem? Oh, Senator Whitney is voting aye.

CLERK: Senator Whitney voting aye.

PRESIDENT: All right, wait a minute. Senator Keyes voting aye.

CLERK: Senator Keyes voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Yes.

CLERK: Senator Johnson voting aye.

PRESIDENT: Yes. Good heavens, we can't even hear up here. Please hold down the noise. All right now, Senator Kime, for what purpose.....?
