information will be given to the committee.

PRESIDENT: Thank you Senator. Any bills on final reading Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: None, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Resolutions?

CLERK: None, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Introduction of bills and reading by title?

CLERK: (Legislative bills read: LB 147; LB 148; LB 149; LB 150; LB 151; LB 152; LB 153; LB 154; LB 155; LB 156; LB 157; LB 158; LB 159; LB 160; LB 161; LB 162; LB 163; LB 164; LB 165; LB 166; LB 167; LB 168; LB 169; LB 170; LB 171; LB 172; LB 173; LB 174; LB 175; LB 176; LB 177; LB 178; LB 179). That is all Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Any further bills for introduction at this time? Mr. Speaker. Any further bills? Alright, now. Consideration of bills on select file? Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Legislative bills read: LB 180). Mr. President, notice of committee hearings signed by Senator Kremer. It's a Public Works Committee has set bills for hearing for the week of January 22nd.

PRESIDENT: Any further bills? Chair recognizes Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Mr. President, I rise for a point of public information for the rest of the body that I would think it would be appropriate for Senator Anderson to make.

SENATOR ANDERSON: Senator -- Senator Cavanaugh insists that I announce, for purposes of the record, the birth of my son. He was born Saturday afternoon. Actually, I was going to announce this by passing out cigars to all of the members of the Legislature, but then I remembered that I had voted for Senator Marsh's anti-smoking bill and I was afraid that if I did that then Senator Syas would accuse me of being inconsistent. Then I also decided I couldn't afford cigars on $400 a month. But anyway, Eric Conrad Anderson was born Saturday afternoon and I'm now a proud father.

PRESIDENT: Are there any other like announcements at this time? Chair recognizes Senator Stoney.

SENATOR STONEY: I'm sorry, Mr. President, I pressed the button in error.

PRESIDENT: Consideration of bills on select file, Mr. Clerk? Senator Dickerson, Chair recognizes Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Well this, Mr. Speaker, members of the body, this isn't for consideration of bills on select file. Am I in order to bring up a point of discussion or point of rules here?

PRESIDENT: Proceed, Senator.

SENATOR DICKINSON: I wonder if Senator DeCamp would yield to a question?
