

April 14, 1975

the tardiness of these agencies that is proposed in this particular section is especially inappropriate. I want to support Senator Cavanaugh's motion to return it to Select File to strike Section 4 and I think that one thing that particularly strikes me in thinking about this thing is that we are proposing, in effect, levying a fine on someone without giving them the benefit of due process and I think this is offensive. I think it is inappropriate and I think we should attempt to find some other remedy for solving the problem so I hope that you will return the bill.

PRESIDENT: Senator Johnson.

SENATOR JOHNSON: Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Marvel a question, if I may.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marvel, could you respond to Senator Johnson?

SENATOR MARVEL: Yes.

SENATOR JOHNSON: Senator Marvel, on Page 6 of the section that is under question, line 4, it states that they will be subject to the following penalties. That doesn't mean that they will necessarily be penalized, is that right?

SENATOR MARVEL: No, I don't read it that way. I read it that they would be subject to them which means that they would be carried out. That is the way I read it. In other words, you are asking me the question of whether it is optional or not. That isn't the way I read it, Senator Johnson.

SENATOR JOHNSON: OK. Thank you. I oppose bringing the bill back.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cavanaugh.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Is this a close or...?

PRESIDENT: No. Senator Marvel's and Senator Clark's lights are on.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: I will ask Senator Marvel a couple of questions here, then, if he will yield. Senator Marvel, the publication, what does that envision. Where would you have it published?

SENATOR MARVEL: Just published in the same newspapers that are read by people who are interested in state government.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: The Daily Record, for example?

SENATOR MARVEL: What do you mean by the Daily Record, I am not sure what the Daily Record is?

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: That is the Omaha legal publication.

SENATOR MARVEL: No. This isn't...