asked Senator Murphy that question, but I will ask Senator Mahoney a question if I may.

SENATOR MAHONEY: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Mahoney, Senator Murphy did offer in his question, I think, some information that's germane as to how we will vote on this issue. I wonder if you have a response to that for my enlightenment?

SENATOR MAHONEY: Yes, Senator Chambers, and I have an excellent response for your enlightenment and I hope that the words travel back to Senator Murphy by way of the space here. Yes, that savings and loans, when the times got to the point where there was no particular area of home building taking place in Nebraska, things were shutting down, that savings and loan that you mentioned also continued and made 25 hundred.....

PRESIDENT: Now, answer the question. Everybody has debated twice now, answer the question.

SENATOR MAHONEY: I'm trying to give the answer back to Senator Murphy. They made 2,500 loans in the depressed times in a time when no one else would make loans to home builders, they kept the realtors going, they kept the home building in the general area in which this saving and loans operate, working each day.

PRESIDENT: That is not responsive. Just answer Senator Chambers question.

SENATOR MAHONEY: Mr. President, it is responsive because the question that was asked of Senator Chambers is what did they do with the 100 million dollars and I was explaining to him. It is almost necessary to say that if there is a charge made against the savings and loan, you should know the good portion of it.

PRESIDENT: That wasn't the question.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Mahoney, Senator Goodrich said that he can add some enlightenment, so would you mind if I would ask him.

SENATOR MAHONEY: I would be more than pleased since I have gained the disfavor of the Lt. Governor.

PRESIDENT: I'm just trying to abide by the rules that everybody gets to speak twice.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Goodrich, did you hear the question that had been asked?

SENATOR GOODRICH: Yes, I did, and there is a good answer.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would you please give it to me.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Okay. The reason for example, that some savings and loan associations in the state of Nebraska have to
