

January 10, 1977

LB 155, 156

a change. It is going to give us a much better possibility of making better time in the middle of the session where we need it for General File debate. If there are any questions, Mr. President, I would be glad to answer them.

PRESIDENT: In the meantime, Mr. Clerk, would you read the new bill.

CLERK: Read title to LB 155. That is all, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Anything further? Do you have a motion on your desk? Senator Keyes.

SENATOR KEYES: We'll try once more. The Revenue Committee will meet in this corner of the building down here just as soon as we adjourn, for about three minutes.

PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk, would you reread the committee meetings under the North balcony. We have Revenue Committee under the North balcony.

CLERK: Just about everybody that is going to meet is going to meet under the North balcony. Revenue is going to meet under the North balcony. Rules Committee is going to meet under the North balcony, and Urban Affairs Committee.

PRESIDENT: Senator Luedtke.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Mr. President, members of the Legislature. One more item that I did not mention. Although the President did suggest to you that you get in the bills, since we are meeting today and tomorrow principally to get these bills underway, those of you who do have bills I would urge again that by tomorrow morning that you get them in. The more we can get in, the more we can get referred, the more we can get printed and out to the public, the better this session is going to go. I urge those of you who have bills that you want to introduce, don't wait till the last day. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: And you are moving to adjourn till....?

CLERK: Mr. President, I have one more bill and one more announcement.

PRESIDENT: Alright.

SPEAKER: Any other bills to be brought in, let's get them in.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Dworak is announcing that the Miscellaneous Subjects Committee will meet right after adjournment. I assume they also will meet under the North balcony.

PRESIDENT: The South.

CLERK: The South balcony. Mr. President, one new bill. (Read title to LB 156).

00087