

funding is concerned, you're going to pay for it no matter how you do it. I think it's going to cost a great deal more if we put this $150 per million on because we're going to have a collection problem. I don't know if you're serious or not about picking up the litter in the state of Nebraska, but I would move we vote on the amendment. Call the question.

PRESIDENT: Do I see five seconds? I do. The question is shall debate now cease. Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 2 nays.

PRESIDENT: Debate ceases. Senator Simon, this is your motion.

SENATOR SIMON: Mr. President, I promised my good friend, Frank Lewis, that he'd have at least two minutes to discuss 99 so I will waive closing.

PRESIDENT: No close from Senator Simon. The question is...

CLERK: Motion is to return LB 220 to Select File for specific amendment. The amendment being offered by Senator Merz on page 729 of the Journal.

PRESIDENT: Record your vote. Have you all voted? Record. Senator Simon.

SENATOR SIMON: For Senator Merz, I will go to every extreme to help him out. I will ask for a Call of the House. How many have been excused?

CLERK: Two.

PRESIDENT: Senator Merz, do you want the House to go under call?

SENATOR SIMON: I'll ask the House to go under call.

PRESIDENT: The question is shall the House go under call. Record.

CLERK: 12 ayes, 23 nays.

PRESIDENT: Report the vote.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 21 nays.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. According to our agenda, we are to recess. Senator Lewis for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. President, I rise on a point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: State the point to the Chair succinctly.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. Chairman, I'm going to do it as succinctly as possible in two minutes. I lost six from yesterday. I have provided you with some information. I would like for you to read that and it's on your desk under my name if and when we ever debate this. I want to express my personal appreciation, Mr. Chairman, for being invited to join the Judiciary Committee this morning. It's been a real pleasure.
