

SENATOR DWORAK: Senator Moylan, exactly what does this amendment do please?

SENATOR MOYLAN: This is Senator Lewis' amendment. I think it's a corrective amendment to assure that all the assets or income that anyone child will get when they're in an institution would be accredited to them. It would not get lost in the institutional funds.

SENATOR DWORAK: They're not credited to them now?

SENATOR MOYLAN: It's supposed to be but the way the law is now, it's very vague and lots of times they tell us the income gets lost in the department funds and they want to make it stand out so that they will be invested and the income off of the investments also would go to the child.

SENATOR DWORAK: We're talking about current income, what other kind of income is there other than current income? The amendment says current income. What other kind of income...

SENATOR MOYLAN: He may have an endowment coming to him when he's taken in. He could have...

SENATOR DWORAK: That wouldn't be current income?

SENATOR MOYLAN: I don't know exactly how you would describe current income. I suppose...I don't know, depending on how you look at current income. I think though from reading here, I haven't seen the amendment myself, I haven't looked at it.

SENATOR DWORAK: I wonder if it wouldn't be a good idea on this amendment to wait for Senator Lewis. Maybe we can act on the bill and put the amendment on on Select File and let Senator Lewis explain, rather than hold it up. We're on consent calendar and I don't want to vote on this amendment without hearing Senator Lewis' explanation of it. I've got a lot of questions on what he means by...rather than get hung up on this, I...

SENATOR MOYLAN: We'll take it out and then Senator Lewis can handle that on Select File, if that's OK.

SENATOR DWORAK: Thank you.

PRESIDENT: So we're withdrawing for consideration at this time Senator Lewis' amendment?

SENATOR MOYLAN: Yes, that's the request, I believe it's OK to do that to move the bill.

PRESIDENT: Any other amendments Mr. Clerk? Senator Moylan, are you ready to move the bill?

SENATOR MOYLAN: I move to advance the bill as amended to E & R Initial.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, Senator Shirley Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President and members of the Legislature. I have some questions I'd like to ask Senator Moylan. Has any consideration been given to raising the dollar figure from the $1500 now which may be saved for the student to a higher level so that student would have more dollars when he
