

SENATOR MARESH: Mr. President, how many bills are scheduled for Tuesday the 19th? I believe that we have bracketed about a half a dozen bills for that day, didn't we?

PRESIDENT: Yes.

SENATOR MARESH: How can we take up this bill if that many bills are bracketed for that date?

PRESIDENT: Well the way we have been bracketing for a time in the morning, and I think that we could do that pretty well.

SENATOR MARESH: Well.....

PRESIDENT: Based upon this morning's performance that is no trick.

SENATOR MARESH: That is why we didn't get very far on Select File did we.

PRESIDENT: Senator Koch, are you of a mind to take up another amendment?

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. President, I have an amendment up there and I am ready to try and present it to the body.

PRESIDENT: Alright, okay, the Chair would like to suggest something, that if these 21 co-introducers would want to withdraw this temporary we could advance the bill and you could move that it be returned for your specific amendment with the understanding that this amendment is going to be filed right away on top of it. Now, do you....

SENATOR KOCH: If the introducers would be allow me this privilege, I would be happy to accept.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DE CAMP: Mr. President, it isn't that simple. Remember that this is Select File, it was returned from Final Reading for a specific amendment. That in itself takes the mustering of 25 votes.

PRESIDENT: To return it.

SENATOR DE CAMP: Right. So, now you are saying that we sacrifice basically, mustering....well we have already mustered the 25 votes to return it and you are saying that we just throw that out the window.

PRESIDENT: Well....I...if you are going to get the 25 votes you are going to get them for both purposes, but....

SENATOR DE CAMP: Not necessarily.

PRESIDENT: The suggestion may have no merit. I thought perhaps if you wanted to do this it might take care of a bunch of other amendments.

SENATOR DE CAMP: I just think that you can't.

PRESIDENT: Alright, that is fine. We can always try. The
