

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp calls for the previous question. Are there five seconds? There are. Record your vote on the matter of closing debate.

CLERK: 30 ayes, 1 nay, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Debate ceases. Senator Lamb, would you close please.

SENATOR LAMB: Just briefly. Mr. Chairman, I would submit that the leadership knew that the Governor was going to veto LB 33 before the latest plans, the plans for the final days of the session were established, that he knew the rules under which the Governor could operate, and that those things should have been taken into consideration when the final seven days of the session were previously set.

PRESIDENT: The question is shall the Speaker's order, amending the previous order, be overruled. Record your vote. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Record.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 22 nays.

PRESIDENT: Motion fails. Senator Luedtke.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Mr. President, just one explanation. In Senator Lamb's closing he said we knew the rules. We did not know....

PRESIDENT: That is out of order. The matter is decided, Senator Luedtke.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Mr. President, I want to explain my....

PRESIDENT: There is no reason for an explanation, Mr. Speaker. The motion is over. You won.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: It isn't a matter of whether I won.

PRESIDENT: Well if I let you answer a closing argument, because you're Speaker, I'll never be able to cut off any discussion.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: I'm calling a press conference to announce why I....

PRESIDENT: Turn the Speaker off. You call your press conference.

CLERK: Mr. President, your Committee Enrollment and Review reports we have examined and reviewed LB 46 and find the same correctly engrossed.

PRESIDENT: Well you can overrule...override the Governor, but not the Lieutenant Governor. This is a different ball game in here. What else are we going to do today? Oh, you want to do something else, Senator Savage. We've got four days left. We can.... Alright, let's get to work. Senator Murphy, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR MURPHY: I just wanted to say it's my football and if I can't be it I'm not going to play.
