PRESIDENT: All right. Take up Senator Warner's motion.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have the following motion offered by Senator Warner. I move that any bill carrying an A bill for a general fund appropriation or any enacting.....

PRESIDENT: Senator Warner.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, I indicated to the Speaker that you should pass over that this morning, if it is okay.

PRESIDENT: All right. Number seven, resolutions, LR 149. Is this an amendment to the one we had yesterday? Is this an amended LR 149?

CLERK: Mr. President, LR 149 was considered yesterday. There are pending amendments to LR 149 offered by Senator DeCamp.

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers or I mean Senator DeCamp. At the conclusion of the discussion on LR 149 yesterday, Senator Dworak renewed his motion for a point of order and it was sustained for the second time by the Chair. I understand there are some amendments. Would you reoffer LR 149 as amended so we get something up here.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Okay, let me just ask you this. We have talked to a number of people and we think we have language that is satisfactory and understanding. Could we wait a day or until Monday to do anything? Can we wait until Monday.

PRESIDENT: All right, but these have to lay over one day anyway, and because of my ruling, there may not be anything in front of us, I am not sure.

SENATOR DeCAMP: If that is the case, we can just reoffer it Monday, in any case.

PRESIDENT: All right, so you want to pass over LR 149.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Until Monday, until we talk to some people.

PRESIDENT: Okay, thank you, Senator. LR 152.

CLERK: Mr. President, LR 152 was introduced by Senator Frank Lewis, Senator Venditte and Senator Labeledz. It was read yesterday, Mr. President. It can be found on page 252 of the Legislative Journal.

PRESIDENT: Senator Labeledz.
