

bill, Senator Kelly, so we will start with 21. All Senators are to return to your desks. Nonsenatorial personnel are required to leave the floor. Commence Final Reading.

CLERK: LB 21 read on Final Reading.

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 21 pass? Record your vote. Senator Savage, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR SAVAGE: I don't think the Final Reading bill is correct in my book. We have had some amendments on it and I don't think what is in our book is correct. I would like to hold it over till...

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DeCAMP: It would seem if that is the difficulty we had better not be passing it. Maybe we should let it fail and reconsider it then.

PRESIDENT: That's true. Is this true of other Senators? Do you find a variance between what was read by the Clerk? Senator Clark can't read so it doesn't make any difference. Is your book different, Senator DeCamp?

SENATOR DeCAMP: I am just taking John's word for it. I don't know what he wants the bill to be.

SENATOR SAVAGE: There was one portion there where we eliminated canoes and I think the canoes are still in there.

PRESIDENT: Would you give the Clerk the page and the line number? They are different.

SENATOR SAVAGE: Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask permission to suspend the rules and lay this over. We have to suspend the rules first, don't we? Lay it over until Monday.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President, that is why I would suggest we are too far.

PRESIDENT: We have to determine, you do not have the correct copy before you in any form? The bill will be laid over because your final copy is not the same as was read by the Clerk so we have to lay it over. The bill will be laid over. Senator Marvel, for what purpose do you arise?

SENATOR MARVEL: I would like to raise a point of order. Why are we reading Final Reading when there is nothing on the agenda?

PRESIDENT: The Speaker announced earlier that there was a deletion by inadvertence and Final Reading was not on the agenda.

SENATOR MARVEL: There were a number of people that called me from over the state as to whether or not there were going to be bills read on Final Reading and I indicated no because I followed the sheet.

PRESIDENT: I appreciate that. The Speaker said that it was inadvertence that it was left off of the agenda.
