so that will be at 1:30 followed by a return to final reading with the bills that we did not take up of todays final reading and those that we did not take up the other day and I'll just read those off to you if you want to know which ones they'll be. They will be 624 and 624A, 946 and 946A, 700 and 700A. Those are the ones a few days ago we did not take up. Then followed by 693 and 693A, 737 and 737A, 743 and 743A, 786 and 786A, 800 and 800A, 803 and 803A and 808 and 808A. The final reading of those would follow our actions on overrides after 1:30 this afternoon. So, Mr. President, I'm stating that the agenda will be changed in that order unless someone wants to object to it and get 25 votes to change it.

PRESIDENT: Is there any attempt at this time to amend the Speaker's announced order? The order shall stand then until any further attempt. We have 125 fourth graders and some of their parents and teacher from Aurora Elementary School. That's in Hamilton County which is represented by Senator Maurice Kremer. Thank you for being with us in the south balcony. Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: Pardon. Well, if they are ready I guess we could. Shall we check?

PRESIDENT: Mr. Sergeant at Arms would you determine if the Mother of the Year delegation would want to commence 15 minutes early.

SPEAKER LUEDTKE: It would be well if we could do it then we would not interrupt our...we are at a natural breaking point and it would be well to do it. If not, Mr. President, then we could proceed with the change of committee report by Senator Carsten up until that point.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Duis moves to reconsider our action on final passage of LB 553 and Senator Koch moves to override...moves that LB 44 become law notwithstanding the action of the Governor.

PRESIDENT: Can the Sergeant at Arms report to the Chair? All right, they're not ready. They're not ready, Mr. Speaker? All right. Senator Carsten. Senator Carsten, we're going to go ahead with your report. The Mother of the Year is not quite ready so...item 7 on the Agenda, Senator Carsten. Mr. Sergeant at Arms.

MR. SERGEANT AT ARMS: Mr. President, the Nebraska Legislature is pleased to welcome the 1968 Mother of the Year, the Young Mother of the Year, who will be presented by the Mother of the Year Committee Chairman, Mrs. Larry Enersen. All will be escorted by your Committee.

PRESIDENT: Have the escorts bring the distinguished visitors to the front of the Chamber please. All rise. I take great pleasure now in presenting to you the Chairperson of this delightful and important function today, Mrs. Larry Enersen. Everybody knows her as Eleanor Enersen. Mrs. Enersen.

MRS. ENERSEN: It's a great honor to be here. It always is when one stands before this august body. Usually we have to
