LB 1 thru 29

Commission on Status of Women; a report from the Natural Resources Commission; a report from the Department of Administrative Services; one from the Nebraska Power Review Board; the Office of the State Athletic Commissioner; the Political Accountability and Disclosure Commission; the Auditor of Public Accounts; the Department of Aeronautics; the Secretary of State's Office.

And finally, Mr. President, I have in my possession a series of reports from the various Natural Resource Districts reflecting attorney fees paid during this past calendar year. Those will be inserted in the Legislative Journal in full. (See pages 64 and 65.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: Does that complete your report?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The next item is the introduction of bills and I, at this time, would encourage Legislators to get your bills up here as soon as possible so that they can not only be introduced but also referred to the appropriate committee by the Executive Board and I think the Executive Board will meet at noon today. Those of you who have bills that are ready to introduce, I encourage you to bring them up. We also will have a meeting tomorrow at which time we will make the same encouragement. All right, Mr. Clerk, are you ready?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, #5, introduction of bills.

CLERK: Read titles. LB 1 through LB 29. (See pages 65-70.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: Would you want to wait just a minute?

CLERK: Yes, sir.

SPEAKER MARVEL: In the North balcony of the Chamber, I would like to have you greet 12 YWCA guests from Lincoln together with Dr. Willis Moreland, their sponsor. May I say to the guests that we are in the process of reading bills for the first time and all they are reading is the title and then they will be referred to committees and public hearings will be held in the next few days. So if you are disturbed about the fact that there is conversation while this goes on, this is a formality that we go through and the members of the Legislature are fully aware or will
