

January 5, 1979

LR 84, 85

PRESIDENT: We will inquire one more time, how many Senators still intend to introduce some bills this morning? Are there any others that have any bills to be introduced? The Chair recognizes Senator George.

SENATOR GEORGE: Mr. President, I would just like to announce that I would like to have a meeting of the Urban Affairs Committee just for the purpose of choosing a Vice-Chairman under the South balcony. It will just take a minute. Would the members please come over to the South balcony.

PRESIDENT: Thanks, Senator George.

CLERK: Mr. President, a new bill, LB 84. Read title. (p. 101)

Mr. President, I have a series of notices. The Education Committee will meet in Executive session to elect the Vice-Chairman on January 8th, 1979 immediately following adjournment in the new south hearing room 1515. That is offered by Senator Koch, as Chairman.

Mr. President, the Business and Labor Committee will meet under the North balcony following adjournment today.

Mr. President, the Revenue Committee will meet underneath the South balcony upon adjournment today.

Mr. President, the Judiciary Committee will have its organizational meeting at its first regular meeting, Monday, January 8, in Room 1113. That is offered by Senator Nichol as Chairman.

PRESIDENT: An announcement on the desk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Schmit would like to have the Agriculture and Environment Committee meet under the North balcony for purposes of conducting an executive session.

Mr. President, a new bill, LB 85. Read title. (See page 101.)

PRESIDENT: We will stand at ease until further bills, then. If some of the committee chairmen want to have their committees meet while we are standing at ease that would be perfectly all right. Senator Schmit would like to have his committee under the North balcony.

EASE

PRESIDENT: The Legislature will come back to order. We will
