

fish for that same weekend, I have to pay seven dollars and fifty cents, and I'm saying that that is not a fair situation, that we should be able to do the same thing on a state basis, on a resident basis that you can do on a nonresident basis, and so, therefore, I urge you to support my amendment, which would provide for a three day resident fishing permit for four dollars.

SENATOR LEWIS: Senator Lamb has closed and replied. Mr. Clerk, would you read his amendment so everybody is clear on the issue?

CLERK: Mr. President, the amendment reads as follows: (Read amendment as found on Page 686 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR LEWIS: You've heard the issue. All those in favor of the Lamb amendment will vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Voting no.

CLERK: Senator Lewis voting no.

SENATOR LEWIS: Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: I don't believe too many people were listening so I'll ask for a Call of the House. I wonder, Mr. Chairman, is there any way that we can educate the people as to what the issue is about, since I'm sure that a number of them have not been on the floor during the debate.

SENATOR LEWIS: Well, Senator Lamb, we can read the amendment again once. You asked for a Roll Call vote, but that's as far as we'll allow that to happen. Any member may request the reading of the issue before the House if he wasn't here. Senator Lamb, you did make an official request that the House go under Call? Clear the board. The issue before you is, shall the House go under Call? All those in favor vote aye. Those opposed will vote no. Record.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 0 nays to go under Call, Mr. President.

SENATOR LEWIS: The House is under Call. Those that are not members will leave the floor. The Sergeant at Arms will secure the absent members and bring them in. Record your presence. Please record your presence. Let's move this along. The House is under Call. The House is under Call. Please record your presence. Senator Wagner, would you punch your button there, please, sir? Senator Lamb, we have seven excused members, and there's thirty-six accounted for, and about
