LB 19

PRESIDENT: Well, Senator Wesely is twenty-five years old today, and the motion is to wish him a happy birthday. Maybe we better not...

SENATOR KREMER: No...no...would the Chair sing happy birthday?

PRESIDENT: No...no...I'd say that I overrule...I overrule.

SENATOR KREMER: A round of applause for Senator Wesely.

PRESIDENT: Senator Wesely, we do wish you a happy birthday. Some of us can't remember when we were twenty-five years old, but go ahead. The Chair recognizes Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: I just want to say thank you very much everybody. It's been a joy. I'll tell you something though, I decided that two weeks ago when you were all so generous and helped me pass that Czech Day Resolution I promised you kolachies, and I've got a whole bunch of them I'm going to pass out now to celebrate my birthday. So thank you very much.

PRESIDENT: Thank you, and that will make Final Reading a little bit more bearable this morning.

SENATOR WESELY: That's what I thought too.

PRESIDENT: Okay. Now maybe that will get everybody to their desks so we can start Final Reading and then you can get the kolachies out. Oh, Senator Cullan. Yes, the Chair recognizes Senator Cullan.

SENATOR CULLAN: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, there's a rumor being circulated on the floor by Senator Fitzgerald that Senator Wesely has finally reached puberty, so I would like to congratulate him today.

PRESIDENT: I'm glad you nailed down the source. Okay, at least it sounds like we're off to a good start this morning. Let's...I think everybody's about at their desks, so Mr. Clerk, as soon as you're ready why we will commence with Final Reading on LB 19.

CLERK: (Read LB 19.)

PRESIDENT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 19 pass? All those in favor vote aye. Opposed nay. Record the vote.
