LR 82, 83
LB 444, 345

to LB 444.

Mr. President, LR 82. Read. Mr. President, that will lay over, properly so. Mr. President, LR 83. Read. Mr. President, that will be referred to the Executive Board. (See pages 1879 - 1881, Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR NICHOL: We will skip over LB 378 until the Speaker gets back. Senator Newell, did you want to take up LB 345 this afternoon to advance that?

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President, I have an indefinite postponement motion up there in order to make sure we don't have to take it up today because there just ain't enough votes here and I am not a fool. For that reason I'd like to have the Clerk read that and then have it laid over.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Newell moves to indefinitely postpone....if I may, Senator, the bill was returned from Final Reading for specific amendment. We failed to adopt the amendment and the bill failed to readvance so the bill is technically....I am not sure we could take your motion, Senator.

SENATOR NICHOL: Excuse me, Mr. Clerk, the bill is technically what?

CLERK: It was returned for specific amendment, Senator.

SENATOR NEWELL: Well, then a voice vote to readvance it?

CLERK: It would be readvanced to Final Reading and the rules require a machine vote, I believe, Senator, to readvance it to Final Reading without going through the Enrollment, engrossing process.

SENATOR NEWELL: Why doesn't my indefinite postponement motion, it doesn't.....

CLERK: Because it was returned...

SENATOR NEWELL: I ask unanimous consent to lay it over. I ask unanimous consent to lay it over.

SENATOR NICHOL: Are there any objections? I hear objections.

SENATOR NEWELL: I move to pass over it. I think there is
