LR 96, 97, 98

CLERK: Mr. President, I have three new resolutions, LR 96. Read. That will be referred to the Executive Board. Mr. President, LR 97. Read. That will be referred to the Executive Board. Mr. President, LR 98. Read. That, too, will be referred to the Executive Board, Mr. President. (See pages 2003-2006, Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, I have an Attorney General's opinion addressed to Senator Haberman regarding LB 344. (See pages 2006-2008, Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER MARVEL: It is my pleasure to introduce to the Legislature three separate groups of visitors. Some of the students I think are on a tour now but from Senator Dworak's District in the North balcony there were 14 sixth graders, one teacher, two parents. The school is St. Anthony's Elementary School, Columbus, Nebraska, and Sister Elizabeth is the teacher. Also from Senator Dworak's District, also originally in the North balcony, 23 sixth graders, two teachers, three parents, the school is St. Isidore Elementary School, Columbus, Nebraska. Carol Sand is the teacher. Are any of those young people here now? It will be noted in the Journal that they are visiting the Legislature today. From Senator Labeledz and Senator Pirsch's District in Omaha, it is my pleasure to introduce 41 members of the Benson Womens Republican Club, Nadine Wood is the President, from Omaha, Nebraska. Where are you folks located? Good morning. The Legislature might be interested in the fact that so far this session 283 individual schools have visited the Legislature and 69 additional school have indicated that they will visit us by closing date. That means for the 1979 session 352 separate schools. Are we ready to proceed then on #5 which are motions? Senator Marsh. The first motion has to do with the Committee on Committees report.

CLERK: Mr. President, the Committee on Committees report is on page 1819 of the Legislative Journal.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Excuse me. Senator Landis, for what purpose do you arise? Senator Marsh.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature, Marian Andersen of Omaha has appeared before the Committee on Committees and we recommend her confirmation to the Nebraska Arts Council. I move that the Legislature adopt this recommendation.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the motion is the approval of the
