LB 86, 262, 363

the membership for anyone who knew they were going to be gone to make sure that someone else offered their motion, that at least we wouldn't be holding up any bills because of someone being absent so I move adoption of the motion.

PRESIDENT: Any discussion on the Warner motion? Seeing none, the question before the house is the adoption of the Warner motion regarding Final Reading. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 33 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Warner's motion.

PRESIDENT: Motion carries and the Warner motion is adopted. The Clerk now desires to read some matters in. Proceed, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, new resolution, LR 123 offered by Senator Koch. (Read LR 123 as found on pages 2088-2089 of the Legislative Journal.)

Mr. President, Senator Hefner asks unanimous consent to have his name added to LR 109 as cointroducer.

Mr. President, I have an Attorney General's opinion addressed to Senator Pirsch regarding LB 262 (See pages 2089-2090 of the Journal.) And Senator Koch asks unanimous consent to print amendments to LB 363. (See page 2091 of the Journal.)

PRESIDENT: The Chair would like to take this opportunity during this time to introduce from Senator Carsten's district, twenty-seven sixth grade students from Weeping Water School, Shirley Wenzel, teacher. They are up here in the South balcony and they are standing already so would they just wave to us and show us that they are here at the Legislature. Hi and welcome to the Legislature this morning. We are then ready for agenda item #6, Final Reading. If the Sergeant at Arms will see that all members are in the chamber and at their desks. All nonlegislative personnel will leave the floor of the Legislature. We are prepared to take up Final Reading. As soon as everybody is in place, why we will take up Final Reading for the day. I might explain to those of you visitors that on Final Reading the Constitution of Nebraska requires that every last word of every bill be read to the Legislature on Final Reading and the rules of the Legislature prescribe that on Final Reading every member will be at his or her desk. So right now we are getting all the members to their desks and we will then proceed with Final Reading. The only
