the bill that have advanced today were a result of making sure that that regulatory function was fully self-financed and was not being done at general fund expense. And this one in this case, the purpose of the bill was to reduce the operating cost for the Board of Examiners for psychologists by putting it in with a more efficient level but they will pay their full proportionate share of whatever that administrative cost out of their fees and not a general fund appropriation.

SENATOR MURPHY: I am counting on you to keep it that way, Senator Warner.
