

the people in Nebraska and the people in Bellevue don't mind spending any money at Wayne State College, and that is not going to cause a revolution. He knows that spending money for the University is not going to cause that revolution, or whatever it is. Those are amazing arguments. Unfortunately they are not of the quality that I am used to from Murph. So, Murph, on that particular argument I would say that you are going to fail on it, because if we really want to get down to it, then we ought to start limiting all the programs. Guys are stumbling all over themselves in terms of increasing other kinds of programs, personal property tax relief and others, and this one little $300,000 project in terms of a supplemental retirement for folks that really need it is going to trigger the revolution. I might add that one of the issues that has been on the Constitution that the people have voted on has been to give additional money to retired teachers and that carried.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Fowler, do you wish to close on your bill?

SENATOR FOWLER: Okay. Well, the committee amendment turns the bill into the bill that we have just debated. So I would hate to see all that debate go to waste. So I would move the adoption of the committee amendment.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is the adoption of the committee amendments to LB 228. All those in favor of that motion vote aye, opposed no. We are voting on the committee amendments to LB 228. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 1 nay on the motion to adopt the committee amendments, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The amendment is adopted. Now, Senator Fowler.

SENATOR FOWLER: There is one other set of amendments. Is that right?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Fowler moves to amend, and those amendments are found on page 670 of the Legislative Journal.

SENATOR FOWLER: Okay, as the Clerk indicated these amendments are on page 670, and there are three amendments but I would take them as a package. They deal with questions raised by the actuary as far as some technical parts of the
