

March 6, 1980

LB 974

Johnson if you go over there? You maybe find out where he does his banking. You don't know whether he has a dollar or a hundred thousand in his bank account. Where he does his borrowing, you don't know whether he is all paid up or whether he owes them five hundred thousand and if you want to find out and go to the bank or lending institutions, they won't tell you so you won't find out and even if you did find out it wouldn't make him any more honest or dishonest or make him a better legislator or a worse legislator. You don't find out anything. We have a $300,000 expense account over there that is costing the State of Nebraska $300,000 and for what? For nothing. Now, Senator Hoagland, if you really want to do something you can redo that thing over there so that it means something and really puts teeth into it. They don't have guts enough to do anything over there and they don't. You can't find out anything so if you really want to do something, Senator Hoagland, get on the ball, do an in depth study and do something constructive instead of what we have over there. Luckily I can't blame you for any part of that thing because you weren't here at the time and I congratulate you for that and I hope that you do get with it, do an in depth study and come up with something constructive and something that people, that will be palatable to people instead of just filling out forms like we received this morning or yesterday that don't mean a doggone thing.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Newell, do you wish to be recognized? The question has been called for. Do I see five hands? The question before the House is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no, cease debate. Have you all voted? Record the vote.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 5 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Debate ceases. Senator Hoagland...let's see...

SENATOR HOAGLAND: I will be brief in my closing, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER MARVEL: You are now closing.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Yes, sir. You know I think we can continue to ignore this problem and we can continue to push it to the side and under the rug and we can continue to stand here on the floor of the Legislature and say, people of the State of Nebraska, there really is no problem with special interests contributions. We can stand