Mr. President, I have an Attorney General's opinion addressed to Senator Wesely regarding LB 990.

Finally, I have an expression of gratitude from the Charles Froelich family from O'Neill, Nebraska. That will be inserted in the Journal.

SPEAKER MARVEL: It is my privilege, members of the Legislature, to introduce two guest who are under the South balcony. I would like to introduce first of all, Dr. Nikolai V. Sivachev who is the Director of American Studies at Moscow State University. Dr. Sivachev, would you stand and take a bow, please. And accompanying him, Dr. Gene Trani who will spend some time within the next few months studying in Moscow. Would you please stand, please? We had a very interesting one-hour discussion with both the gentlemen. We hope you will come back again. Also underneath the South balcony, guests of Senator Kahle, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Soderquist from Minden, Nebraska. Would you stand so we can say good morning? Do you have any other items of business? Okay, the first item of business is item #6 on resolutions. Then we will go back to Final Reading, the first resolution, LR 213.

CLERK: LR 213 was introduced by Senator Carsten, Reutzel and Nichol. (Read LR 213 as found on page 1100 of the Legislative Journal.) Mr. President, the resolution is found on page 1100.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The Chair recognizes Senator Carsten.

SENATOR CARSTEN: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, I move for the adoption of the resolution. We have this year at the University, we had a team that was not supposed, in the eyes of many, to do much and this year have come through with an enviable record and displayed in their play, that which has been instilled by Coach Cipriano and his staff extremely well. I believe that the problems that Coach Cipriano has endured, his determination and will to continue has gone to the coaching staff and the players and has made a record that is enviable with a bunch of boys that played their hearts out. I think that it is timely that we recognize this and pay them due honor with this resolution. Thank you, Mr. President.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Chairman, members of the Legislature, a few nights ago when Kansas State was playing the University of Nebraska basketball game the Kansas State coaching squad gave a plaque to Coach Cipriano and his staff for being their favorite opponents' coaching staff. Of course, since Coach
