LB 608, 627, 647

things in it that are probably pretty good, but we have a homestead exemption bill. We have one. Let's amend that one. We have eight days left. We have the water bill. We have the budget. We have the gas tax. We have energy. We have a lot of things to do besides having two bills that address....nine days, Senator Dworak....that address the same issue. So I ask you let's indefinitely postpone this one. Let the other people amend the bill that passed today, and let's get on with the show. That is all I am trying to do and I ask for your vote to indefinitely postpone 608. Thank you, Mr. President.

SENATOR CLARK: The question before the House is the indefinite postponement of 608. All those in favor vote aye. All those opposed vote nay. Record the vote.

CLERK: 4 ayes, 23 nays, Mr. President.

SENATOR CLARK: The motion lost. Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President, I move that we adjourn until Monday, March 31 at nine a.m.

SENATOR CLARK: I would like to hold that up just a minute. We have got some things to read in.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Wesely would like to print amendments to LB 647 and I have an Attorney General's Opinion to Senator Cope on....well it's an opinion to Senator Cope, and Senator Maresh to print amendments. Senator Stoney, and Senator Stoney to 627. (See pages 1589 and 1590 of the Legislative Journal.)
