Merle VonMinden and ~~Deenette~~ have become grandparents for the fifth time, Wednesday, May 11th, when his son and daughter-in-law, Scott and Kate, became parents of their first child, a baby girl named Audra Claire VonMinden. Would you like to say something Senator VonMinden?

SENATOR VON MINDEN: I would just like to say that is the fifth granddaughter and it weighed 9 pounds, 5 ounces. It is going to be a basketball player.

SPEAKER NICHOL: I didn't mean about that, would you like to say something else about recessing?

SENATOR VON MINDEN: Yes, Mr. President, thank you. I move we recess until 1:30.

SPEAKER NICHOL: All those in favor say aye, opposed nay. We are recessed until 1:30.

RECESS

SPEAKER NICHOL PRESIDING

SPEAKER NICHOL: While we are gathering, Casey Stangel would like to have a few words with you. Senator Rod Johnson.

SENATOR R. JOHNSON: Mr. President and members and Pages, I would like to call attention to what happened last night, we have had a lot of requests to find out what the final score was. I am glad to tell you that the Senators held up their end and won, this year, 18 to 8, and I expect a lot of grovelling and knee. . . and bowing and. . . from the Pages. They have passed around a little list here, it says, "Stop gloating, we let you win to keep our jobs". Well two years ago I guess the Pages beat the Senators, so they didn't lose their jobs, but it just goes to show you a good team spirit was had by all, I think, and it was a good time. We appreciate having you. Hopefully we will do it again.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Thank you. While we are checking in, we have some visitors in the north balcony that are guests of Senator Remmers. They are 14 seniors from Dawson-Verdon and Fred Mack is their teacher and Walt Herring is the driver. Would you please stand and be recongized. Thank you. Thank you. Then also while we are gathering, may I announce some
