LR 244

quote them. I think that it is wrong and it is unfair to limit it at this time to agricultural area and I would ask you to vote against Senator Warner's proposal.

PRESIDENT: Is there anyone else who wishes to speak on the Warner motion? Senator Warner, you may close. May we have attention, please. Senator Warner is closing on his amendment.

SENATOR WARNER: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, again briefly, my purpose is solely one of narrowing the purpose of the constitutional amendment as I essentially heard it reflected in the discussion the other day. I'm concerned that as broad as it is now and I appreciate the argument that it gives broader support potentially but I'm concerned of the massive amount of expenditure in terms of issuing bonds and pledging state general fund revenue that could happen at some point in the future should it be approved by the citizens of the state at the election and that is the reason for the amendment.

PRESIDENT: The motion is to adopt the Warner amendment to LR 244. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. The Chair will allow 30 seconds for the recording of votes. The motion is to adopt the Warner amendment to LR 244. Have you all voted? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 4 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of the amendment.

PRESIDENT: The amendment is not adopted. What do we have on the resolution now?

CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have is by Senator Hoagland.

PRESIDENT: Senator Hoagland, your amendment is up for consideration.

SENATOR HOAGLAND: Mr. Speaker and colleagues, this amendment would amend the bill by requiring a vote of the people before any bond issue could be authorized under this
