

hay or lease land, but instead cutting the herd to match that year's hay crop when they were short. Eva Bowring was a living example of what many consider the spirit of Nebraska. She was hard-working. She was a good neighbor. She worked to make her community better. She was interested in rural road improvement. She was President of the Highway 61 Association and a member of the Governor's Highway Advisory Committee. Eva Bowring was active in Republican Party politics and served as Director of the Nebraska Stockgrowers Association. She was a member of the Nebraska Cattlemen's Association and a trustee of the Nebraska Children's Home Society. By giving her 8,300 acre Sandhills ranch to the people of Nebraska in a final tribute to the state she loved, Eva Bowring showed the strength of character and generosity that made her a great and visionary Nebraskan. I would urge the members of this body to adopt LR 42.
