

required on overruling you?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Twenty-three. It requires 23 votes to overrule the Chair. The question is, shall the Chair be overruled? All those in favor of overruling the Chair vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted that care to? Four are excused, Senator DeCamp. Have you asked for a record vote, Senator DeCamp?

SENATOR DECAMP: No, I won't do a roll call. That will bug everybody and I don't like to bug people this early in the morning. Call the vote.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 19 ayes, 21 nays to overrule the Chair, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The motion fails. May I introduce some guests of Senator Rod Johnson. In the north balcony there are 12 four to eighth graders from Hampton Lutheran in Hampton, Nebraska. I don't know if they are still there or not. If so, would you please rise. I guess they have gone, but anyway they were here. We have guests of Senator Shirley Marsh, Dr. Jochim Korner and son, Ingo, and Dr. Korner is the City Director of Brunswick, Germany; Hans Brisch, Executive Assistant to President Roskins of the University of Nebraska, and Ingo is going to attend Southeast High School beginning Monday. Would you please stand and be recognized. Thank you for attending the Legislature. In my little bit of German I hope I pronounced your name Korner correctly. Thank you. Do you have anything else on this bill, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: No.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Well, I guess we are ready to read it, aren't we?

CLERK: Yes, sir.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Okay, would you please return to your desks, ladies and gentlemen, for Final Reading. May I please introduce some guests of Senator Haberman in the north balcony. There are 40 seventh and eighth graders from Paxton Consolidated Schools in Paxton, Nebraska, and
