

went to law school, got one of my good grades out of him. Judge Gradwohl, if you read this letter, you would think this was from the Commission. In fact, Judge Orr does not support that letter and thinks it shouldn't have been written, nor does Judge (sic) Kratz who is on the same Commission. The NLRB, NLRLA definition was what was sought. That is what was sought by the supporters, yet that is not what is in this bill. What is in this bill is something completely different and what exactly its implications are, nobody knows. If you accept the federal definition, if you want to go to that plan, you know exactly what it is. For example, under the federal definition there are twelve criteria. Any one of them by federal interpretation and case law triggers, triggers the application.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Time is up.

SENATOR DECAMP: And under this definition whatever "substantial" means, I have no idea. Does it mean two of the criteria? Does it mean ten? You can't use federal case because you have got a whole different definition from the feds. Reluctantly, I urge you to kill the bill and remember that an offer was repeatedly made to take the bill exactly, exactly as the supporters repeatedly said the bill, in fact, was.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is the indefinite postponement of the bill. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Twenty-five votes required to indefinitely postpone the bill. One is excused. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? I will give you ten seconds. How about that? Four, three, two, one. Record, Mr. Clerk. Senator DeCamp.

SENATOR DECAMP: I would reluctantly ask for a call of the house and take call in votes.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 20 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: The house is under call. Please record your presence and those outside the Chambers please return to the Chamber and record your presence. Senator Wesely, for what purpose do you rise?
